MASON CITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
ANNOUNCES WORKER RECOGNITION PROGRAM

MASON CITY – Mason City Economic Development Corporation is pleased to announce the formation of a worker recognition award that will be announced Labor Day weekend of this year.

The effort is being conducted in partnership with the North Iowa 9 Labor Council. The MCEDC and the Labor Council are both going to independently recognize a worker in the Mason City/Cerro Gordo County area as a way to heighten the level of awareness on the impact a solid workforce has on the community when it comes to economic development.

Plans are to announce the winners on Labor Day of this year, with additional recognition of the individuals at the Annual Meeting of the Mason City EDC, which will be held December 2nd.

“Time and again, we talk with companies that praise the efforts of the North Iowa workforce and the MCEDC board thought this effort would be a great way to celebrate the impact our workers have on our business community and on our economic development efforts,” said Stephen Gales, president of the Mason City EDC.

Businesses interested in nominating an employee for consideration can call the office of the Mason City EDC at 423-5724 for an application or download it from the website of the Mason City EDC at www.masoncityedc.com.
