DETERMAN ATTENDS USF BASIC ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COURSE

MASON CITY—Angela Determan, Project Manager for the Mason City Economic Development Corporation recently attended the 29th Annual Basic Economic Development Course in Tampa Florida.

The BEDC was directed by the Center for Economic Development Research (CEDR), a unit of the College of Business Administration, and is accredited by the International Economic Development Council (IEDC). Over 50 participants from seven states attended the conference.

“The course is an intense learning experience,” said course Director & Director of CEDR Dennis G. Colie. The course is structured around core topics established by the International Economic Development Corporation.

Various aspects of economic development were highlighted including environmental issues, finance, business expansion and retention, entrepreneurship, community development and marketing..

A field trip to St. Petersburg and the Mosaic Company highlighted urban redevelopment and environmental issues in economic development.
